

St Martin's Harvest Service supporting Catching Lives

St Martin's Church, Herne will be supporting Catching Lives through their Harvest Service Collection at 10 am on Sunday 1 st October at St. Martin's Church. Becky Barnes handles the fundraising and communications for the Catching Lives charity and has sent us a list of items and help that they would really appreciate. Please pack donations in a Bag For Life where possible so they can reuse them for food parcels:

- Sugar (bags for the centre or sachets for food parcels)
- Decent quality instant coffee (Caffeinated please)
- Squash
- Spreads: Peanut butter, Marmite, jams and marmalades
- Baked beans
- Single-serve packets that people can make with boiling water. For example; pasta sauce, noodles, cup-a-soup
- Individual juice cartons
- Wrapped bars/biscuits, such as Kit Kats
- Reusable bottles/flasks
- Socks
- Gloves
- Hats
- Razors
- Conditioner (we have enough shampoo)
- Handwash
- Hairspray
- Hairbrushes (we have enough combs)
- Laundry detergent tablets/pods
- Vouchers for shops like Argos or multi-store gift cards are always welcome to help people when they move into a home.
- We always need new or good quality tents and sleeping bags to help people who are sleeping rough.

If you prefer to donate financially, you can do so via our JustGiving page. <https://www.justgiving.com/catchinglives>

We are also desperately seeking kitchen volunteers. Anyone interested can contact volunteer@catchinglives.org.
